We were happy to have Kathy Granger drive down from Birmingham today and join us. Thank you, Kathy, for making the time to attend. It's always fun to have you attend. We miss you not being in Dothan.

We had great time today and thoroughly enjoyed the food and visiting with each other. Below are the photos from today's lunch. I hope you enjoy them.

Once again, I will remind everyone. If you have never been to one of the lunches, you should try and come sometime. We always have a good time, good food, warm, loving fellowship with each other and last but not least, lots of laughs! Try it sometime, you may just like it.
